Eastern Ontario Junior B Hockey League From 1960-1972

This is research done on the Eastern Ontario Junior B Hockey League from the 1960-61 seson until the 1971-72 season when teams in the league except Ganaoque moved into Junior A leagues.

The main papers used in the research are Kingston Whig-Standard and Belleville Intelligencer. All regular seasons statistics were published in the newspapers and all playoff stats were researched by me from summaries in these papers.

Notes of interest on some of the seasons:

1960-61: Picton & Cobourg were junior C teams. Belleville started the season as Lambert Rollins but when the team became affiliated with the Chicago Black Hawks on December 5 the NHL team reorganized the team and changed the name to Jr-McFarlands.

1961-62: Gananoque, Picton, Napanee, Coburg and Trenton were Junior C teams. Junior C teams played a sepearate playoff.

1962-63: Napanee, Picton, Gananoque, Cobourg & Trenton were junior C teams. Trenton folded on Jan. 27. Jr B teams and Jr C teams played separate playoffs again.

1963-64: Played interlocking schedule against the Metro Junior B League and with Belleville in the Eastern Jr C League who then joined league for the playoffs because they were a Junior B team.

1964-65: Kingston and Peterborough played an interlocking schedule with the Metro Junior B Hockey League and with Belleville of the Eastern Ontario Jr C hockey league. Since Belleville was a Junior B team it played in the playoffs of this league.

1971-72: Belleville Fairways changed their name to Bobcats mid-season.

Eastern Ontario Junior B Hockey League From 1960-1972

This is research done on the Eastern Ontario Junior B Hockey League from the 1960-61 seson until the 1971-72 season when teams in the league except Ganaoque moved into Junior A leagues.

The main papers used in the reasearch are Kingston Whig-Standard and Belleville Intellgencer. All regular seasons statistics were published in the newspapers. all playoff stats were researched by me from summaries in these papers.

Notes on some of the seasons*

1960-61: Picton & Cobourg were junior C teams. Belleville started the season as Lambert Rollins but when the team became affiliated with the Chicago Black Hawks on December 5 the NHL team reorganized the team and changed the name to Jr-McFarlands.

1961-62: Gananoque, Picton, Napanee, Coburg and Trenton were Junior C teams. Junior C teams played a seperate playoff.

1962-63: Napanee, Picton, Gananoque, Cobourg & Trenton were junior C teams. Trenton folded on Jan. 27. B teams and C teams played seperate playoffs

1963-64: Played interlocking schedule against the Metro Junior B League and with Belleville in the Eastern Jr C League who then joined league for the playoffs because they were a Junior B team.

1964-65: Kingston and Peterborough played an interlocking schedule with the Metro Junior B Hockey League and with Belleville of the Eastern Ontario Jr C hockey league. Since Belleville was a Junior B team it played in the playoffs of this league.

1971-72: Belleville Fairways changed their name to Bobcats mid-season.

Eastern Ontario Junior B Hockey League From 1960-1972

This is research done on the Eastern Ontario Junior B Hockey League from the 1960-61 seson until the 1971-72 season when teams in the league except Ganaoque moved into Junior A leagues.

The main papers used in the reasearch are Kingston Whig-Standard and Belleville Intellgencer. All regular seasons statistics were published in the newspapers. all playoff stats were researched by me from summaries in these papers.

Notes on some of the seasons*

1960-61: Picton & Cobourg were junior C teams. Belleville started the season as Lambert Rollins but when the team became affiliated with the Chicago Black Hawks on December 5 the NHL team reorganized the team and changed the name to Jr-McFarlands.

1961-62: Gananoque, Picton, Napanee, Coburg and Trenton were Junior C teams. Junior C teams played a seperate playoff.

1962-63: Napanee, Picton, Gananoque, Cobourg & Trenton were junior C teams. Trenton folded on Jan. 27. B teams and C teams played seperate playoffs

1963-64: Played interlocking schedule against the Metro Junior B League and with Belleville in the Eastern Jr C League who then joined league for the playoffs because they were a Junior B team.

1964-65: Kingston and Peterborough played an interlocking schedule with the Metro Junior B Hockey League and with Belleville of the Eastern Ontario Jr C hockey league. Since Belleville was a Junior B team it played in the playoffs of this league.

1971-72: Belleville Fairways changed their name to Bobcats mid-season.
